AN EDITORIAL

By H. F. WELLER

The citizens of Albany are facing a serious problem which they will have to decide on Tuesday, May 7.

The problem is not one peculiar to our city. Cities and towns and villages throughout the Nation are facing a like problem and, fortunately for our country and for the world, they are facing it in true American fashion.

Since the beginning of America the "Little Red School House" has been a symbol of the nation's faith in its youth. This faith has not been misplaced. Were it not for America's high standard of literacy, by far the highest anywhere, our citizens never would have come forth with the inventions that have bettered the world, nor succeeded in producing the great buildings, the bridges that have spanned the rivers and straits of the nation, nor created the mass production industries that supply the world.

Some people have blamed Albany's senior citizens erroneously for the defeat of the tax election on January 22. Many of our senior citizens can look back and call to mind the time when the automobile was an oddity, the telephone and the electric lamp a luxury. Even the typewriter was a clumsy contrivance only 60 years ago.

Since then the radio has become a household necessity. Our wives no longer slave over the wash tub, and they cook over gas or electric stoves. In their leisure time they can watch the plays on their television, or hear and see great events as they occur throughout the world, as well or better than if they were on the spot.

It is true we are living in an era of inflation—world inflation. We can recall when the dollar was worth nearly three times what it is worth today in buying power. Everything costs more than it did, and there isn't much we can do about it.

Some of our grandfathers, and our great grandfathers, taught school as a sideline. They did their spring plowing and other work about the farm; then did the harvesting in the fall. When winter came along in November they got a job as the teacher in the little country school. The school year lasted at most only six months, but at $15 a month for their teaching they acquired around $90 with which to purchase more stock for the farm.

The cost of education has gone up like everything else. Forty or 50 years ago teachers were paid from six to eight hundred dollars a year. A principal might get a thousand or twelve hundred dollars. College professors received a little more, perhaps $1500 to $2000. But in those days day labor received a dollar and a half or two dollars for a ten-hour day. Skilled workmen received for a day's work, on the average, about what they get now by the hour.

You can look back on all this and see why today it costs so much more to educate our children. Albany teachers average slightly lower salaries than those of Berkeley or Richmond, but slightly more than those of Oakland. School building maintenance, the cost of supplies, the cost of insurance, all have been on the rise for many years, yet Albany's school tax rate has remained the same for approximately 20 years.

It is not so many years ago that the elementary schools of San Francisco and Los Angeles maintained classes of 45 and 50 students. It is a well known fact among students of education that the smaller the class the better for the student. Teachers can devote more attention to the individual with small classes. Albany elementary schools maintain classes of approximately 32 students, while at the high school the classes are slightly smaller.

Colleges and universities have been constantly increasing their entrance requirements. Why? Because the youth of the nation is demanding higher education. The young people are realizing more and more that the specialized education they can obtain only through a college education is their only hope of getting to the top in the professions, in industry, in literature, and even in farming.

Only by maintaining our schools at their present high standard may we hope to give them the future that they seek, and that they are entitled to.

Two thousand years ago Cicero made the statement: "What greater or better gift can we offer the republic than to teach and instruct our youth?"

Let's get out to the polls on May 7 and vote "Yes." It will not only be a vote for our schools, but it will be a vote for ALBANY.

SCHOOL HEADS NAMED

The Albany Board of Education, at a special meeting held on Tuesday, April 23, made, the 1957-58 administrative assignments, effective July 1, but made them "conditional upon the passage of the Tax Election on May 7" and "at salaries to be determined before June 30, 1957," according to the Board motion. These adjustments are:

Robert G. Dennis—assistant superintendent and director of adult education.

William G. Woolworth—director of instruction and principal of the primary schools.

Charles A. Moore—principal, Albany High School.

F. William Feeny—vice principal and dean of boys, Albany High School.

Eugene H. Baker — principal, Marin School.

Milton D. Gordon — principal, Cornell School.

Bert Griffin—director of community services and supervisor of physical education.

Charles Pinkham, speaking for the entire board, stated, "It is with exceeding regret that the name of Mr. Venter has been left off this administrative assignment list. We have only the highest regard for Mr. Venter and the highest commendation for him and his accomplishments. Were it not for the unusual circumstances which confront this district, his name would have been included. I think it is fair to state that he will have his choice of teaching assignments in the district."

Navy Man to Talk At Rotary Meet On Next Tuesday

An interesting talk on the subject, "Are Navies Obsolete?" has been arranged for next Tuesday's luncheon meeting of the Albany Rotary Club. The speaker will be Captain Becker, previously deputy inspector general for the Bureau of Ships, and a 1922 graduate of the Annapolis Naval Academy. The luncheon will be held as usual at Spencer's on Fourth St., just north of University in Berkeley, starting at 12 noon.

Capt. Becker received his masters degree at Yale University and has served on many of the Navy's top ships including the Battleships Texas, New York, California and Pennsylvania, and the cruisers Louisville and Augusta. He was navigator of the USS Augusta carrying President Roosevelt, Fleet Admiral King and other notables, when he effected the rendezvous in the Atlantic to meet Winston Churchill and the "Atlantic Charter" was promulgated.

Robert Thunen, past president of the North Oakland Rotary Club, was last week's speaker, who gave a talk and demonstration on the advances made in the electric lighting industry. Thunen is an illuminating engineer and district manager for Sylvania Electric Products.

President "Bill" McAuley announced that the club's annual party has been set for Saturday, June 8. Joe Villa is chairman in charge.

The teachers are developing exhibits that show the fundamental worth of the educational program and recent outstanding accomplishments of the children.

Elizabeth Bechtel Passes After Two Weeks of Illness

Albany lost a public minded and friendly citizen last Friday when Mrs. Elizabeth Bechtel passed away in the local hospital after an illness of two weeks.

A familiar figure at Monday night's council meetings, twice a candidate herself for the post of councilman, a former member of the Albany Civil Service Board, and for more than 30 years a citizen of this city, Mrs. Bechtel had built herself a host of friends who will miss her cheery face and friendly smile.

Mrs. Bechtel was born in England and came to San Francisco in 1925, a year later settling in Albany. Her home was at 841 Solano Ave.

Mrs. Bechtel was preceded in her death by her husband Lawrence, a chief engineer in the Merchant Marine, four years ago. She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Yvonne Marshall of Albany, and three grandchildren.

Services were held Monday afternoon at the Ellis-Hold Mortuary, in Albany.

CUT IN G-LINE SERVICE ATTACKED

The Albany City Council this week acted swiftly on a fairly long agenda and went on to act on a number that had not been scheduled. It was one of the "fastest" sessions on the basis of the amount of work done in some time.

Proposal of the Key System to re-route the "G" bus line and to curtail the service to some extent, brought a storm of opposition from the individual council members.

The Key System proposes to start the buses at Stockton and San Pablo Aves. in El Cerrito, thence on Stockton to Alameda, then to Fairmount, and finally across to Solano. At present they start their trips from Peralta, Solano. The plan also contemplates elimination of five trips to San Francisco, and also to eliminate shuttle service on Saturdays. The "G" line renders the only service from Albany to San Francisco.

Mrs. Zahn and Councilman Blank both spoke at some length on the curtailment, and the council voted unanimously to protest the proposal before the Public Utilities Commission at its next meeting in San Francisco.

A proposed plan by City Engineer Wayne McAuley, based upon a tentative gas tax budget, was approved. The plan contemplates the reconstruction of Key Route Blvd. south of Solano; the widening of Portland Ave. to 40 feet, six inches; to carry further preliminary plans on a proposed connecting link between San Pablo Ave. and the East Shore Freeway, and the widening of Buchanan St. by 11 feet to permit four lanes of travel—two each way—on that artery.

The latter move would require obtaining negotiations with both the University of California and the Federal Government, but it was in—

EVER RIDE THE NARROW GAUGE?

With clouds of smoke and a great roar, the old hot boilers of the narrow gauge lines staggered the imagination when they sped along at 35 miles an hour. They weren't always dependable though—frequently the passengers got out to lighten the load up a steep grade—or helped gather wood when the fuel ran out.

If you're riding the narrow gauge on your family budget—having trouble keeping track of monthly expenses—you'll find the going easier with a dependable checking account here at your hometown bank. Open a CHECKING ACCOUNT today—lighten your load at bill-paying time.

Due to our mistake the price advertised for Rath's hams at the Famous Meat Market, at 1109 Solano Ave., which appeared in last week's Albany Times, should have been 59 cents a pound instead of 39 cents a pound. Famous Market owners, Johnny and George Cho, had informed us of the error before we went to press, but we neglected to make the change. We apologize for the inconvenience it caused the Famous Meat Market and our readers.

Wide Area Soon To Have Phones In Dial System

All Berkeley telephone customers, except those with ASHberry numbers, will be able to dial directly to dozens of Northern and Central California communities starting this summer.

The expanding dialing range will make it possible to dial communities in the coastal area from Eureka to San Luis Obispo.

Thomas H. Winburn, Pacific Telephone district manager said that an exact date for start of the new dialing service has not been set. But present plans indicate it will start this summer, he added.

Direct dialing to these communities also will begin this summer in San Francisco.

Winburn said the program is a step toward eventually providing all Bay Area telephone customers with the facilities to dial calls to many parts of the nation.

Such nationwide dialing already is available in many parts of the Bay Area, including parts of Berkeley, San Leandro, and southern Alameda County.

However, Winburn explained that plans to make it available to everyone here are still in the highly tentative stage.

The area that becomes dialable this summer extends along the coast from Eureka to San Luis Obispo and is bounded generally by the hills between the coast and the San Joaquin Valley.

Communities in the valley will not be dialable.

Dialing these places will be no different than dialing a regular local call. Thanks to a special numbering plan, there are no two telephone numbers alike within the entire area.

Only communities which have 7-digit telephone numbers will be dialable. That is, those having numbers with a prefix followed by five numerals.

Winburn said that a complete list of dialable points will be sent to the telephone customers affected shortly before the extended dialing program goes into effect.

Chief Petty Officer Ratings Possible

Seafarers with seven to ten years' experience, with three years' supervisory capacity may be eligible for the rate of chief petty officer, according to the Navy. William R. Koestler, Sea Force officer attached to the East Bay Naval Reserve training center, Clement Ave., Alameda.

He also explained that station - to - station calls are not dialable directly. Long distance calls will continue to be made - to person and collect.

The present dialing system of the metropolitan Bay Area from San Rafael to San Jose.

The steel - hulled ship "Balclutha," at Pier No. 4, San Francisco is a typical merchant ship of the late period.

WEAR WHITE AFTER DARK

WINNER 12TH NATIONAL TRAFFIC SAFETY POSTER CONTEST

The importance of dressing so you can be seen by motorists in the dark may save your life, says the California State Automobile Association. More than half of all pedestrians killed in traffic are struck at night. Many people do not realize how difficult it is for drivers to see pedestrians in dark clothing. If everyone who has to walk along highways and cross poorly lighted streets at night would wear something white or light-colored, the hazards of darkness would be greatly reduced. If you don't happen to be wearing something white, then carry a newspaper or other white or shiny object. Your life as a pedestrian will be safer.

Thought is the seed of action; but action is as much its second form as thought is its first.—Emerson.

Duty then is the sunniest word in all things. Do your duty in all things. You cannot do more. You should never wish to do less.—Robert E. Lee.

Give them a Faith to live by

Worship with them this week

Naturally you want them to have all the good things in life... a happy home... a good education... plenty of chances to meet other nice young people. But be sure to give them the most precious gift of all... Faith.

The wonderful part is that faith is yours to give... no matter who you are, what you do for a living, how much money you have in the bank.

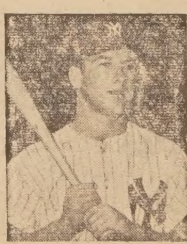

Faith is the gift you give a little at a time. Every week you worship with the children at your church or synagogue. The youngsters see you... the biggest, smartest, most important people in their world... asking God for help, thanking Him for blessings. Then it's clear to them... here they can always find the strength they need, always find the happiness they want.

Then you've done the best a parent—any parent—can do.

Most valuable player offers valuable advice about Savings Bonds!

Mickey Mantle's big bat won him the American League's Triple Batting Crown last year and unanimous choice by the nation's sports writers as his league's most valuable player. This young Oklahoman figures to have many more great years in the majors, but already he's looking beyond his playing days, planning for his family's future with regular savings.

Mickey says, "From personal experience, I know that the guy who comes through regularly means the most to himself and his team. I've learned the same lesson about savings. Buying U. S. Bonds regularly helps win the game of security."

"Millions of sports fans can be star players in the game of security by joining and staying on Payroll Savings where they work."

Good advice for the long haul from a long ball hitter.

For most of us, Payroll Savings offer the easiest, surest way to save. And the time to start is now. All you do is sign the application form in the payroll office where you work. Select the amount to be set aside for your Bonds each pay-day. Then your saving is done for you. And each time you've accumulated enough, a Bond is purchased in your name.

You keep adding to your Bonds through Payroll Savings and your Bonds keep earning interest for you. It's a sure way to make a little deduction add up to a lot of security.

So don't put off saving another day. Sign up for Payroll Savings where you work—today. Or start buying Bonds regularly where you bank.

Part of Every American's Savings Belongs in U. S. Savings Bonds.

QUIET CITY SLEEPING

My brother-in-law must be related to Van Winkle. To get him out of bed in the morning, you just about need a squadron of low-flying jets, the U. S. Marine Marching Band, and a short circuit in the electric blanket.

And you know, voters are a lot like that... pretty difficult to wake up. And too often, the awakening comes too late.

Is it to late in Albany?... not yet. The problem is arousing the voter. That means you and the guy next door.

Now most of us know all the facts and figures on this school tax election coming on May 7th. And most everybody shares the same opinion: that this school tax increase is reasonable; it's vital; it's right for all of us. Most of us believe this... yet, most of us STAYED HOME on last election day.

What's the answer? The answer is believing in this, like anything else, means you've got to do something about it. And in this case, you've got to get out of that chair, and make a bee-line for that polling place at the school and back up your ballot.

What's so important about your vote? One vote can make all the difference in Albany! One vote can make the difference between first-class education or bargain-basement schooling; one vote, YOUR vote, can make Albany either a LEADING city... or a LEAVING city!

So let's be awake to the times! Let's be awake to our needs! Circle the date and member the word. The word on May 7 is YES!

SPEAKING & CARDS

CARD TRICKS CAN BE EASY

Many veterans who were hospitalized during World War II may remember a special recreation program sponsored by the playing card industry. Industry representatives brought simple card tricks which required no sleight-of-hand to wounded and physically handicapped veterans. The tricks not only whiled away many a dismal hour for the soldiers and sailors but often helped restore both mental dexterity and self-confidence. Response to the program was so enthusiastic that it prompted the manufacturers to make available ten of these tricks in booklet form for use by men, women and children everywhere. One that consistently wins new friends, even when it is an old timer, is called "Ten-Eleven."

Take any 21 cards out of the deck and turn them face down in your hand. Disregard the balance of the pack.

Deal these cards into three files of seven cards each face up as follows: First three cards are dealt horizontally across and spaced apart. Continue dealing in this fashion until you have your three files of seven cards each.

Now tell some one to select secretly any one card in the three files and fix it in his mind, but not to name it. Ask him only to indicate the file it is in. After he has done so, pick the cards up, file by file, retaining the exact order of the cards in each file, but make sure the indicated file is picked up second and is between the other two files.

Then turn the reunited 21 cards face down and deal them out a second time face up exactly as before. Ask your subject once more to indicate the file containing the card he originally picked. Pick up the cards, file by file, again making certain that the indicated file is in the middle.

Deal the reunited cards face up once more into three files of seven cards each. Again ask your subject to point out the file where his card is located. Gather the cards up, file by file, keeping the indicated file again in the middle.

Here's the trick. Turn the reunited 21 cards face down and begin facing them one by one. When you come to the eleventh card, that will be the one your subject selected.

If you find card tricks interesting, a copy of "Take a Card" which contains this and nine other tricks fully described and diagrammed may be obtained by sending ten cents to cover mailing and handling to Playing Cards, 420 Lexington Avenue, New York 17, N. Y.

Marines Offer New Air Deal For Enlistees

The recruiting service of the U. S. Marine Corps announced today that its aviation program is now open to young men enlisting for either three or four years. Up until now, only men that signed for four years could receive an aviation school guarantee, however since the Marine Corps has been expanding its air wings, more men are urgently needed to fill vacant aviation billets.

S/Sgt. C. D. Morley, NCO in charge of the Berkeley Recruiting Station, says that applications for May are now being accepted for this special program. Young men interested in this line of occupation should contact his office as soon as possible in order that a place may be reserved for them. Only a few men per month will be accepted for this duty through this station. The sergeant added that the aviation school is a guarantee, not a promise. Upon qualifying at his office, they are placed on a list for aviation school. This is one of the best programs, the Marine Corps has ever offered.

For information concerning this program, two, three or four year enlistments, or reserve and officer procurement programs, the Berkeley Marine Recruiting Office is located at 1976 Shattuck Ave., TH. 1-3454.

U.S. SAVINGS BONDS

40,000,000 Americans own more than $41,000,000,000 of cash savings—in U. S. Savings Bonds! They're one of the world's safest, surest investments. Your Government guarantees the principal of U. S. Series E Savings Bonds—up to any amount—and the rate of interest you receive.

Payroll Savings is the easiest way to save!

One of the reasons so many people are reaching their savings goals with Bonds is the Payroll Savings Plan. It's a sure-fire way to steady savings because the money is saved for you—automatically.

You just sign the authorization card in the payroll department where you work. Sign up for any amount you wish—a couple of dollars a payday or as much as you can spare. And when enough has accumulated, it's automatically invested in a Series E Savings Bond in your name and the Bond is turned over to you.

Then your savings really go to work—building up a backlog of security for you and your family. And adding to the economic well-being of our town and our country! If you haven't already signed up for the Payroll Savings Plan, why not do it today?

Take a look around our town! Don't you see all the signs of a strong economy? How about that mechanic down the street who just opened his own garage, the neighbor who's sending his son through medical school? How about all those homes that are being started and those bright new cars that are parked in front of our town's bustling stores? Things look pretty healthy, don't they?

Do you ever stop to wonder how much of this prosperity was made possible by U. S. Savings Bonds? Not just because they helped our country through an emergency either. Although that's part of it.

An even more encouraging fact is that all over America more people are saving more money, purposefully, than ever before in the history of the world. Today, more than
